FUN IN THE SUN

Games, prizes, a balloon twister, entertainment and treats were all part of Vincentian Home’s Summer Carnival organized by the Vincentian Home volunteers. Perfect weather under blue skies made for a lovely afternoon in the outdoor Wander Garden.

An accordion player entertained throughout the affair, filling the air with festive melodies. Thanks to help from dozens of volunteers, many residents were able to take part in the carnival. A free ice cream stand was particularly popular with attendees.

Based on rave reviews, the festival was a smashing success! Thank you to volunteers at all Vincentian ministries who gave of their time, talent and treasure to brighten the lives of residents.

Getting to Work with Vincentian’s New President and CEO

Nick Vizzocca knows Pittsburgh. As a lifelong Western Pennsylvania native, Vincentian’s new President and CEO cites homegrown celebrities like Dan Marino and Andy Warhol among his favorites. You’d be hard pressed to find a bigger local sports fan, too.

Nick also knows healthcare – Pittsburgh healthcare, to be precise. He has spent the better part of 20 years in the healthcare industry in Pittsburgh, working most recently as administrator of UPMC’s ICU Service Center.

So what brought Nick to Vincentian?

“My Catholic faith is very important to me,” Nick says. “Because of this, I’ve felt an immediate connection with Vincentian and the Sisters’ mission. I’m eager to help carry on this rich tradition of compassionate care.”

Nick earned his bachelor’s degree at Pitt and received an MBA at Point Park University. He’s also earned a master’s degree in public administration from Point Park University.

“Vincentian has a rich history of innovation and collaboration,” Nick says. “The Vincentian system has remained a mainstay in Pittsburgh for many years for a reason,” Nick says. “That shared history will propel us to new heights as we forge ahead with an emphasis on teamwork, family, innovation and collaboration.”

A strong healthcare team comes together just like a winning sports team or a loving family, Nick says. It takes determination, sacrifice and vision. And, not unlike the 2016 Pittsburgh Penguins, everyone has to give their all – from the rookie goalies to the seasoned veterans.

“We have important decisions and an abundance of hard work ahead of us,” Nick says. “But, as Vince Lombardi once said, ‘there is no substitute for work.’”
Get to know Nick Vizzoca

As Vincentian begins a new era under carefully chosen leadership, we invite you to get to know Nick Vizzoca — his love of family, penchant for sports, and that while he is tough, he’s also “sweet.”

Who is your hero of fiction? Guido Orefice, the father from the movie “Life is Beautiful,” played by Roberto Benigni, because of the sacrifice he made for his son…I would do the same for my children. This is also one of my favorite movies. If you have not seen it, you must.

Where can you be found on weekends? Mowing the lawn or shoveling snow...it’s Western PA after all.

What is at the top of your bucket list? Drive the Pacific Coast Highway with my wife in a Ferrari (convertible of course), golf Pebble Beach, stay at a ranch and take part in a cattle drive; batting practice with the Pittsburgh Pirates; and so many more.

What three people would you like to have dinner with? Dan Marino, Bruno Summartino and Andy Warhol. You might ask why. Well, all four of us grew up in the same neighborhood of South Oakland within three blocks of each other.

What word would your mother use to describe you? Sweet.

What can always be found in your glove compartment? The owner’s manual…I hate clutter in the car, which my family will attest to.

What is your favorite website? Aside from vcs.org it would have to be espn.com.

What would we be surprised to know about you? I love to cook and listen to big band era music (Sinatra, Martin...) and opera (Pavarotti).
